

Pigeon Forge, TN A Very Special Place to be at Christmas

This of course is the week of Christmas and many activities are planned around this event. Be sure and check locally when you get to your destination to find out if they are closed any days during this week.

Not generally known outside of Pigeon Forge, but the town is host to The Incredible Christmas Place, reportedly the South's largest Christmas village, surrounded by the beautiful Smoky Mountains of Tennessee. The Christmas spirit comes to life there daily, with over 50 designer-themed Christmas trees, novelty Christmas Lights, Department 56 Villages, Personalized Christmas Tree Ornaments, and custom floral arrangements designed exclusively at The Incredible Christmas Place. It is located at 2470 Parkway, Pigeon Forge.

The Black Bear Jamboree is also holding a Christmas Spectacular dinner and show this year in Pigeon Forge. They are running a Christmas special deal with meals and tickets to two different shows. The choices of shows available are The Comedy Barn Theatre, Blackwood Breakfast Special, Magic Beyond Belief and The Miracle.

The Black Bear Jamboree also presents the Bears discover the true meaning of this special season as their journey takes them from Santa's Workshop in the festive streets of New York City and finally standing before a living Nativity.

And of course, there's always Dollywood and her many "special at Christmas" spectaculars. Pigeon Forge is a very special place indeed to be at Christmastime.
