

Thanksgiving in Branson is Sure to be a Family Favorite

Cool autumn weather, incredible shopping, and hearty dining make Branson the perfect location for a late November vacation. With the holiday season fast approaching, Branson is preparing shows, restaurants, and stores for the upcoming events.

Don't worry about having a great meal on Thanksgiving Day. Plenty of local restaurants are planning on taking part in the holiday festivities. Candlestick Inn offers an unforgettable dining experience on the edge of the cliffs on Mt. Branson overlooking Lake Taneycomo, the Branson Landing, and old town Branson. They are a family owned and operated restaurant since 1962. Chateau on the Lake will be offering guests a Thanksgiving brunch at one of their fine restaurants while overlooking Table Rock Lake. Country Kitchen will also be serving guests a Thanksgiving buffet. Other local restaurants open for dining are Cracker Barrel, Dockers, Grand Country Buffet, Lonestar Steakhouse & Saloon, McFarlains, McGuffey's Steakhouse & Saloon, Shoney's, and the Wooden Nickle.

Seasonal attractions are sure to entertain family members of all ages. The Ozark Mountain Christmas runs through the months of November and December featuring special holiday performances and amazing lighting displays. Silver Dollar City will host the Old Time Christmas event which features amazing light displays, the Dickens Christmas Carol musical, and the Living Nativity.

Finally, to end your Thanksgiving getaway, Branson is totally prepared for "Black Friday." With tons of amazing local shops and malls, you are sure to find amazing holiday specials. The Factory Merchants Outlet Center will be offering extended hours for the weekend shopping crowd.

For more information about vacations to Branson, MO visit <http://rooms101.com/category/branson>.