

Take Advantage of Empty Hotels - New Incentives & Unique Travel Options!

Does Autumn give you the urge to visit your favorite wineries and attend the myriad of festivals? Do you enjoy the luxuries of a luxury resort, the decadence of a five-star hotel or the quaint charm of a B & B? Are you tired of the arbitrary Expedia/Travelocity machines that don't take any subjective consideration of your lifestyle? Are travel agents too expensive or impractical for a weekend excursion? If so, consider the old cliché what's old is new again.....with a very upscale twist!

What do Wyndham, Hilton & Disney have in common? They are world class hospitality brands that provide a superior experience. They also offer incredible bargains through their network of hotels & resorts if you agree to preview their vacation ownership program. Their logic is simple. The boom times are over. Most people won't be purchasing that second home on "the lake" or splurging on extravagant vacations. They have set a gold standard that all must follow. The winner is the consumer. Enjoy the incentives without commitments. It's that simple.

Following this trend, Rooms101.com has created the perfect hybrid travel marketplace. A 21 year old company specializing in promotional vacations, they have partnered with leading brands offering these incentives. Their deals are diverse - especially in Williamsburg. They have a 3 day deal at the Kings Creek Plantation Resort with New Kent Winery tickets for $99! Whether your looking for a B & B getaway or a luxury vacation, you'll find incredible deals AND service at Rooms101.com. They have multiple destinations and will help you find the best flight deals, rental cars, tickets & more.
