

Atlantic Beach, NC And Across the Bridge to Morehead City

Straight across the bridge from Atlantic Beach to the mainland is Morehead City, where you'll find LaVaughn's Pottery Emporium. The 4,000 square foot emporium features the works of over 100 potters and carries some of the finest handmade North Carolina pottery in the world. There you will also find a great selection of woodwork items, chimes and jewelry. An interesting shopping side trip while you are in Atlantic Beach.

If Dad has gone fishing and Mom wants to do something fun for the kids, and if they love to skateboard, the T&B Skateboard Park is also in Morehead City. This is an indoor skateboard park that provides 7,500 square feet of space for skateboarders, scooters, and inline skates. There are concessions on site and the facility is also available for birthday parties and special events. Check it out for an afternoon of fun.

If you do much traveling, or have children in college away from home, there is a fantastic and very reasonably priced insurance package that covers the entire family for an entire year. Rooms101.com offers this package at $60 off the usual price. Click on <http://www.g-ets.com/css> for more information. And be sure and sign up from that site, so you can take advantage of the special reduced rate provided to Rooms101.com.

For more information about vacations to Atlantic Beach, NC visit <http://rooms101.com/category/atlantic-beach>