

Colonial Williamsburg Embraces November with Festivals, Golf and Veteran's Day Celebrations

Colonial Williamsburg is home to many historical sites and 18th century charm. Along with the many activities famous to tourists, November brings a month of festivals, golf tournaments, and Veteran's Day Celebrations.

The month starts out with the 16th Annual Couples Golf Tournament at the award-winning Golden Horseshoe golf course. Couples will play on the Gold Course on November 2nd and wrap up the tournament on the Green Course on November 3rd. The middle of the month also brings the Fall Military Invitational Golf Tournament in honor of Veteran's Day. This tournament will also be held at the Golden Horseshoe Golf Club. To be eligible for competition, one player must be active duty, retired or reserve military or a member of the National Guard.

Experience the best of dining in early Virginia at the "Dining in the Eighteenth Century" conference. This event features culinary arts and dining customs of the colony's most prestigious households. This event will last from November 8th - 10th and is sure to be an exciting way to dine out while on vacation.

Veteran's Day sparks a huge celebration in this historical town beginning with a procession down Duke of Gloucester Street at 4:30 p.m. starting at the Capitol. Militia and cannon crews will be firing volleys in recognition of those who serve. Active duty military, guard and reservists, retirees, veterans and their dependants can enjoy free admission passes Friday through Wednesday, November 6 - 11, to listen to speakers from the past and present.

For more information about vacations and events in Williamsburg visit <http://rooms101.com/category/williamsburg>.